Kitchen

[kich-uhm] noun

The kitchen is the heart of the home, it is a way of living, a place to gather, celebrate and share. We need kind and flexible pieces to feel at ease and make the most out of any space.

Finest materials to combine beauty with functionality. Timeless designs that adapt to any situation and reflect the Mediterranean lifestyle. Flexible furniture to add an outstanding value to your home.

Designed in the Sun

"Our soul belongs to the Mediterranean."

Our soul belongs to the Mediterranean. Here, light has an impressive influence on who we are, how we live and how we feel. Our warm character, our relaxed vibe, and the way we take care of what really matters reflects our deep connection with the sun. We are creativity, energy, and spontaneity.

In the Mediterranean, design lives free of all pretense, combining warmth, simplicity, and convenience. Everything has a purpose, there is no room for unnecessary excess and only the truly important remains.

Natural light exerts a powerful influence in our sketches. This glow is what brings everything to life and unleashes our artistic soul. It is part of our identity and it is the starting point of our designs, reflected through our passion for colors, the warmth we convey, our attention to detail and in the way we appreciate the small things.

We enjoy being surrounded by people, we like to share, communicate, and learn from the talented ones we admire. Collaborative work has always been part of our culture. Meaningful collaboration can improve communication and make everyone feel part of a whole. We are firm defenders of collaborative spaces where imagination releases to create perfect synergies.

Our collection is an essential selection of Mediterranean pieces for spaces where collaboration and dialog flow. This is the consequence of our "Designed in the Sun".

Aleta Collection

If we look for a leitmotif in our collection, that would be the combination of synthetic structures and extra comfortable seats. The simplicity, the contemporary design of our chairs and armchairs comes from the hand of bases that have the precise material to define the use and the function, free of all unnecessary adornment.

Comfort comes from subtle details on both the inside and outside of each piece. Aleta was born in this way, achieving a perfect balance capable of fulfilling the creative proposal of its designer Jaime Hayon. An iconic piece with a huge personality, which is available in multiple finishes, textures and bases, and is able to perform in any sort of kitchen layout.

ALETA COLLECTION

The boundaries between spaces are blurred. Conventional kitchens are no longer contained spaces only used to prepare quick meals, they have evolved into important social spaces to fuel bodies, minds and souls of friends and families all over the world.

We feel more comfortable surrounded by people, in flexible atmospheres where we regain confidence in ourselves and feel like everyone is participating. Whereas kitchens were once solely for cooking they are now also for living. Rooms filled with energy, character, design and lots of aroma. Finding the right pieces to dress this living area is easy with our collection. The Aleta range, designed by Jaime Hayon, mixes elegance with comfort to perfection, bringing the possibility of creating a multipurpose kitchen space where we are not limited by the use, but inspired by the warmth of the finishes. In this case, it does not matter where we live our day, but the comfort with which we approach it.

Patricia Urquiola's portrait

“There is a fine line between the ambition to achieve an iconic yet functional design, a fine line between the author's personality and the role that a table should play in a private space.”

Patricia Urquiola

Burin Collection

A table is so much more than just pure functionality, it is the place to share, connect, and enjoy. With a rotund and recognisable silhouette, Burin by Patricia Urquiola is a collection of tables specially suitable for hospitality and dining spaces. An easy to clean piece that is able to resist the course of time with great success.

As households prepare for co-living spaces and —above all— take values such as flexibility for granted. In all these spaces for people, there is a value sine qua non to the condition of the human being. In all of them there is the search for well-being, self-realization and freedom of expression. One expects to experience the feeling of comfort here. Therefore, there is a fine line between the ambition to achieve an iconic yet functional design, a fine line between the author's personality and the role that a table should play in a private space.

Burin Collection

BURIN TABLE

With Patricia Urquiola, we have learnt to look for new ways of constructing and designing, and use materials that the classic furniture industry would have never even contemplated. It is fascinating how the use of an unusual component such as polyethylene has managed to democratize this centrally based table. Above all, it is interesting how it has happened without losing an ounce of character and differentiation.

Burin exists in various sizes and finishes to fit any layout. No matter what size or shape of table you need, you will find it with Burin. Its single, double or triple base can accommodate additional seating as required. By giving the possibility of combining it with a sophisticated table top, we have maintained the balance between durability and elegance. Get ready for your kitchen to become the new brunch hotspot of your home.

LAST MINUTE STOOLS

Upgrade your dining space with a set of Last Minute stools. If you are looking to maximize seating space, these stools are the best addition. Last Minute combine comfort, style and substance to give your kitchen a fresh and modern edge, as if you were eating out. The collection designed by Patricia Urquiola was conceived with materials of great resistance and durability, under an umbrella of sustainability and conscious design. We believe that industrial design should incorporate sustainability as an inherent value and in this case, Last Minute was born with the soul of an icon and the spirit of an eternal piece. Its idea of contemporary design —timeless and enduring over time— allows us, in the long run, to avoid the use of natural resources in an unnecessary way. For us the pursuit of innovation is also key when wanting to replace specific parts of a piece of furniture. In the case of Last Minute, it is possible to only replace its seat if this has worn out excessively

KLIP COLLECTION

These days, almost every room is multi-functional. We are always looking to make the most out of our spaces. One of our essentials is the Klip chair by Victor Carrasco. Klip is a plywood oak collection of chairs which is available in multiple finishes, bases, and fabrics. An optional cushion upholstered in fabric or leather can be added to add extra reassurance to the late dinner evenings. With space being such a privilege nowadays, Klip is a fantastic compact piece as some of the models in the collection can be stacked, amplifying the social possibilities. Its name is a reference to the slot in its back, present in the earliest model of the collection, which serves both as a handle for easy transportation and as a support to hang handbags or coats.

“One of the most practical and ingenious pieces in our collection is the Klip chair. Klip is a plywood oak collection of chairs, available in multiple finishes, bases, and fabrics.”

Ears Collection

The newest chair by the talented Piero Lissoni joins the collection with the soul of a true icon. Ears is as light in terms of materials as it is resistant to aging. Its sinuous shapes keep intact a style capable of taking us back in time to the contemporary classics of the 70s. It is possible to choose oak wood finishes for the entire product, as well as combining its oak seat and metal structure. Both versions of the chair can be complemented with distinctive armrests, designed to embrace the user. This new chair designed by the Italian architect means going back to the roots of industrial design, a tribute to the shapes and materials that so inspired Viccarbe's beginnings in the furniture industry.

Trestle Collection

It has been 6 years since Trestle, John Pawson's first collection designed together with Viccarbe. The minimalist architect created a range where simplicity and small details prevail to provide warmth and functionality into any space. Trestle comprises a set of bench and table, designed under a modular system offering infinite possibilities. The Trestle collection represents the balance between architecture, materials and the light that brings them all to life. The table of studied proportions has become an ideal meeting spot for family members and guests to gather, celebrate and enjoy special moments. As a table, Trestle manages to raise versatility to its maximum and manages to integrate itself without stridency in all kind of dining spaces.

TRESTLE TABLE

There is no environment where Trestle does not fit in: it is rotund, but lightweight. It is functional, but elegant. It is minimalist, but extremely comfortable. Today there are three heights available: 74cm, 88cm (counter height), and 105cm (bar height). We can surely say Trestle is an all rounder.

Combine it with Quadra chair, designed by Mario Ferrarini, to achieve a minimalist yet welcoming dining layout, great to entertain guests. Quadra emerged from a very light visual structure, fully capable of resisting over time with firmness, and perfectly prepared to suit all type of lunch scenarios.

TORII BENCH

This timeless bench was born as a simple seating system, capable of projecting a great identity. Torii is composed of two wooden pieces connected by a very recognizable metal structure. Torii stands out not only because of its front perspective, but also because of its back. In the eyes of Ludovica and Roberto Palomba, the bench's image has managed to convey the creative concept perfectly: "Its T-shaped structure represents the gateway to Eastern temples. It's a kind of approach, an evocative inspiration..."

"The kitchen is the heart of the home, it is a way of living, a place to gather, celebrate and share."

MAARTEN & ALETA CHAIR

It is all about creating an inviting, calm and comfortable kitchen space, with right proportions, appropriate light and kind materials. We seek kitchens that are versatile enough that are able to adapt to the daily necessities and can rapidly transform into inspiring working spaces. This is where design plays an important part.

Chairs such as Aleta, by Jaime Hayon, or Maarten, by Víctor Carrasco, add that special uniqueness and flexibility into the ambience, and help you unwind and recharge batteries after a long day. Pleasing, long-lasting and modern design pieces that are able to resist the daily activities and bring joy into the home.

Funda Collection

The commitment to maximum sustainability and comfort shapes Funda, a new range of seats conceived by the outstanding German designer Stefan Diez, under the umbrella of creating an innovative and visually light but cozy chair. The chair, the armchair and the stool of this new range are presented as the construction of two differentiated pieces, capable of extending the lifecycle of the product indefinitely. This intelligent system facilitates the independent recycling of each of the sections of the product, in case any of its parts suffers after years of use or severe wear and tear. In this way, Funda's innovative design manages to evoke the maximum expression of comfort and is the best option when looking for conscious and coherent designs to equip a new kitchen. A pleasing and welcoming addition to brighten the family meals.

TRESTLE TABLE

Funda is versatile, elegant, and comfortable. The piece boasts the delicate and synthetic charm the German designer brings to all his creations. Funda means “cover” in Spanish, and this is reflected in its sustainable structure, made up of two distinguished upholstered parts that, due to its shape, simulate the gesture of two hands embracing the user. The cover symbolizes the balance between precision and the human-centered approach of Stefan Diez. His constant search for both industrial innovation and visual appeal has attained a delightful collection known for its pleasing shape with a distinctive wrinkled upholstery. Thanks to a special interior technical fabric, we have managed to simplify the usual components of a chair to solely structure and upholstery, without compromising on resistance and comfort.
