DESIGN INTENTION

The environments that surround us have a profound impact on the way we live, work and feel. Whether at home, at work or in the public realm, good design can enhance creativity, support productivity, and aid learning. It can inspire, uplift and comfort us, which in turn affects our wellbeing and ability to innovate.

That is why at Fritz Hansen we don't simply make furniture; we create spaces. Whether in an office, hotel lobby or restaurant, our aim is to connect architecture and design as a whole. The way that objects, lighting and technology sit amid their wider context shapes our mood and motivation, which is why we work closely with clients to create customised spaces that suit their organisational culture and purpose.

As the world has changed over the past 150 years, we have evolved with it, while retaining our founding purpose as a maker of beautiful, long-lasting furniture that enhances our wellbeing. Today, the professional world is undergoing dramatic transformation. Yet even as boundaries between work and home blur, our desire and need for inviting spaces that inspire and support us is more important than ever.

CARING FOR THE WORLD

Extraordinary design does not need to come at the expense of the environment. At Fritz Hansen we are committed to continually reducing our negative impact on people and planet, without compromising on the quality that has cemented our reputation over 150 years. Our ISO 14001 certification* and signing of UN Global Compact, shows our commitment to continuous improvement.

Our furniture is superbly made and designed to last a lifetime – it's no surprise that there has long been a booming vintage market for our products, making circularity an intrinsic part of our heritage. Within our own walls, we are striving to establish a circular model by offering extended warranties and replacement parts to extend our collection's lifespan.

As one of the world's leading furniture makers we believe it's our responsibility to pave the way towards a more responsible system of consumption. These ambitions are embedded in the founding principles of our business, our ownership by funds that support charitable causes and our commitments to the UN Global Compact 10 principles.

*Fritz Hansen has been ISO 14001 certified since 2004. ISO 14001 is an internationally agreed standard that sets out the requirements for an environmental management system. It helps organizations improve their environmental performance through more efficient use of resources and reduction of waste, gaining a competitive advantage and the trust of stakeholders.

WORKSPACES

Workplaces are no longer simply venues for silent productivity – we go there to meet, speak to, collaborate with, and be inspired by other people. At Fritz Hansen, we believe that an uplifting environment, furnished with beautiful, functional, high-quality objects, can enhance this experience.

THE INVITING WORKSPACE

The workplace of the future is a platform for conversation and collaboration, whether in person or remotely. Meanwhile, today's workers want jobs that offer them a sense of community and purpose, where they feel inspired and cared for. Amid this, the need for privacy and concentration remains, so the design of an office today must balance a variety of purposes and working styles, allowing space for private, productive work, as well as social engagement, rest and retreat. This is a challenge for employers, but also an opportunity to design an environment that supports people's best work.

CONNECTING HUMAN INTERACTION

In an era of hybrid-working, office environments act as connectors between those who are physically present and those operating remotely, and our designers facilitate this through flexible designs, as well as smart layout and configuration. We design spaces that prepare businesses for a future in which flexibility, human interaction and work-life balance are as crucial as productivity and innovation.

COLLABORATION AND FOCUS

The spaces we design allow workers to shift seamlessly between quiet concentration, and intense collaboration. A design can both fulfil a practical need but must also set the right atmosphere.

Our rich selection of options allows spaces to be customised to align with the culture and ethos of our clients – whether they wish to create a sense of calm through clean lines and tactility, or to inspire people and lift their mood with colour and bold contemporary design.

HOSPITALITY

A functional hospitality environment can be transformed into an immersive experience for meeting, greeting, hosting, socialising and dining through good design. Fritz Hansen furniture is ideal for spaces in which we interact and socialise, from lobbies and lounges to bars and restaurants.

RESTORATIVE BREAKS

Can contentment be designed? What about productivity or happiness? Much is out of our control, but we can set the scene for good conversations, great meetings and restorative breaks. A good seat is the first step.

THE ART OF LOUNGING

Built on danish design tradition. Modern lounge chairs elevate seating to an art form. The Egg™ and Swan™ chair by Arne Jacobsen are masterpieces of Danish design and was designed in 1958 for the lobby and lounge areas of the SAS Royal Hotel in Copenhagen. The design contains no straight lines, making it look organic and soft despite its simplicity and strong architectural appeal.

Egg™ and Swan™ lounge chairs adds organic curves to interior design.

WHERE WE MEET

'Comfort was a key factor, as was the combination of the best of Danish design craftsmanship and modern technology,' says Jaime Hayon about the Fred™ lounge chair.

COME TOGETHER

The N02™ Recycle is a multi-use chair made from upcycled plastic household waste that can be recycled again. A crease in the chair's back is inspired by a folded piece of paper on the designer's studio table and provides extra support for the upper and lower back. Seven colour options are inspired by Scandinavian nature and, along with multiple base options, make N02 Recycle particularly applicable for work, meeting and dining arrangements.

PUBLIC SPACES

Good design can enhance the experience of a public space, while ensuring it operates with seamless efficiency. At Fritz Hansen, we have applied our expertise to airports and public transit locations, offering travellers comfort and impeccable functionality in what can otherwise be stressful environments. Museums, cultural and educational institutions strive to be inspirational and uplifting, qualities that our designs bring to every project.

TOOLBOX

TAILORED TO YOU

Over longer periods, a space must adapt as a business grows and evolves. Tastes, meanwhile, are not universal: the aesthetic of an environment needs to fit with the culture of an organisation as well as the local context. While some design principles are universal, the ability to make choices when it comes to forms, colours and materials matters.

CUSTOMISED SOLUTIONS

Architects design buildings that suit the specific needs of their users. Similarly, Fritz Hansen crafts bespoke interiors that recognise that every scenario is unique. We understand that organisations need to reflect the context and culture they operate in, as well as giving their people a sense of ownership over their surroundings.

We collaborate with clients around the world to create custom designs for many different contexts.
